Throughout the implementation process, the progress will be regularly assessed through IQAC Meetings. To ensure efficient implementation, the SMART concept (Specific, Measurable, Attainable, Realistic, and Time-bound) will be employed to develop implementation plans. The implementation document clearly outlines the criteria for success, and the responsibility for implementing and achieving success lies with the respective Head of the Department (HoD) and Head of the Institute (Director) and the members of CDC, under the visionary leadership of Chairman, CDC
